12 displaying wildlife specimens that were salvaged or legally
13 obtained.

14 It shall be unlawful for any person to bring into the 15 State of Illinois for the purpose of holding, releasing, 16 propagating or selling any other living wild animal not 17 covered by this Act without first obtaining a permit from the 18 Director. The permit shall be granted only upon satisfactory 19 proof that the specific animals intended to be imported are 20 free of communicable disease at the time of importation, will 21 not become a nuisance, and will not cause damage to any 22 existing wild or domestic species. Application for this 23 permit shall be filed with the Director not less than 30 days
24 in advance of the proposed date of importation. The Director 25 may incorporate in the permit any restrictions as he may deem 26 appropriate. These provisions shall not apply to any animal 27 imported into this State for the purpose of being confined 28 and exhibited in any zoo or other public display of animals 29 nor to any other animals or groups of animals that the 30 Department of Natural Resources may exempt by administrative 31 rule.

32 It shall be unlawful for any person to take any other 33 living wild animal not covered by this Act without the 34 permission of the landowner or tenant.

(520 ILCS 5/2.33b new)

Sec. 2.33b. Hunting confined animals.

(a) As used in this Section:

"Animal" means a game mammal or fur-bearing mammal, as defined in this Act, or an exotic mammal; but the term specifically excludes white-tailed deer found in Illinois.

"Exotic mammal" means a mammal not indigenous to this State.

(b) No person may knowingly engage in, sponsor, instigate, assist, or profit from the killing or wounding (or attempted killing or wounding) of an animal for the purpose of sport, amusement, attainment or production of a trophy, or collection of a prize, if the animal is:

(1) confined in a man-made enclosure, regardless of the size of the enclosure;

(2) tied, staked, caged, or otherwise restrained from engaging in normal movement; or

(3) released from confinement or restraint in the presence of a person for the purpose of being killed or wounded by that person.

(c) No person may knowingly purchase or sell any animal, or any part of an animal, killed or wounded in violation of subsection (b).

(d) A person who violates subsection (b) or (c) is guilty of a business offense and subject to a fine of not less than $500 and not more than the greater of $5,000 or twice the amount of the financial gain realized by the person from the commission of the violation.

(520 ILCS 5/3.34) (from Ch. 61, par. 3.34)

Sec. 3.34. Exotic game hunting areas.

(a) Until January 1, 2003:

1 Any person who imports into Illinois wild or 2 semi-domestic mammals from other states or foreign countries
3 for the purpose of providing hunting with bow and arrow or 4 gun with or without dogs must obtain an exotic game hunting
5 area permit. The annual fee for this permit shall be $1000
6 and shall expire on April 30 of each year. The hunting area
7 cannot be under 640 contiguous acres nor more than 2560 acres 8 in size. It must be fenced in a manner capable of holding 9 the mammals released. The holder of an exotic game hunting 10 area permit must obtain a $10,000 bond to cover damages that 11 may occur if the mammals escape from the enclosure. The 12 mammals must be inspected and certified disease free from a 13 licensed Illinois veterinarian. The area must be inspected
14 by personnel of the Department of Natural Resources before 15 the license is issued.

16 (b) No exotic game hunting area permit may be issued on 17 or after January 1, 2003, and any such permit then in effect
18 shall be deemed to expire on that date.

19 (c) Beginning January 1, 2003, no person may import into 20 Illinois any wild, semi-domestic, or exotic mammal from 21 another state or from a foreign country for the purpose of 22 providing hunting. For the purpose of this Section, "exotic 23 mammal" means a mammal not indigenous to this State.

24 (d) No person may maintain or operate an exotic game
25 hunting area in this State on or after January 1, 2003.

26 (e) Anyone who knowingly violates violating this Section
27 is guilty of a business offense and shall be fined not less 28 than ~~from~~ $500 and not more than the greater of ~~to~~ $5,000 or 29 twice the amount of the financial gain realized by the person 30 from the commission of the violation.
